PREFACE

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE TEXTILE CENTER OF THE SOUTH

Altitude 780 Feet

Twenty years ago the South began to arouse from her bed of rich, deep traditions, and bestir herself. There is a new South today—an onward driving, pulsating South in industry, agriculture and finance.

Fundamentally, successful industries develop best where aboundant raw materials, mechanical power and stable population combine. Tremendously rich in natural resources, power and raw materials, the South has strided forward with seven-league boots, and today, the economic advantages resulting from the development of her resources are leading the trail of industry Southward.

This is true, not only in the textile field, where advantageous conditions of power, climate, labor and living conditions at the source of raw materals have already transferred the center of the industry from New England to the South, but in other lines of diversified manufacturing as well.

North Carolina today is the pacemaker of the South; it leads in textile manufacturing and hydro-electric power development and Charlotte is the center of a textile manufacturing territory having 770 mills, operating over 10,000,000 spindles, and consuming more cotton than any other section in the world.

It is the center of one of the largest hydro-electric developments in the United States—the total horsepower developed and in immediate prospect of developing being more than a million horse power.

Is th largest center in the South for textile mill machinery and equipment, practically all the large companies in the United States and England handling their entire business in the South through Charlotte offices and plants.

Is the "Southern Market" for dyestuffs—laboratories and offices being maintained here by the leading dye corporations of the country.

Has four railroad lines with over one hundred trains in and out of the city daily, diverging in eight different directions.

Annual payrolls of over 20 million dollars, from the more than two hundred widely diversified manufacturing and industrial plants in Charlotte.

AS A MANUFACTURING CENTER CHARLOTTE OFFERS:

1. Low power for manufacturing purposes.
2. Close proximity to the sources of all material for finished products.
3. Cotton, cotton yarns, cotton seed, cotton oil, tobacco, peanuts, kaolin, wood pulp, lumber, etc.
4. It is the logical location for a manufacturer of commodities for export through the ports of Norfolk Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah.
5. It offers a very desirable type of high-class labor, available to manufacturers.
6. Mild climatic conditions throughout the year. There are nine months of exceptional open-season weather.
7. The adequate transfer facilities of four railroads with daily terminal facilities of 4,800 carloads.
8. Desirable living conditions and an exceptional residential development.

CHARLOTTE

THE QUEEN CITY

Charlotte is located in the center of a territory recognized as the most rapidly developing industrial and commercial section in the South. The eyes of the commercial as well as tourist world are focused on the Piedmont Carolinas. The section of which Charlotte is the geographic and industrial center.

Hard surface roads radiate from Charlotte in every direction: Eleven Highways entering Charlotte. The National Highway crosses North Carolina State Highway at Charlotte. North Carolina has 9,000 miles of paved roads. Two million people can come to Charlotte from a radius of one hundred miles by automobile, transact business and return home in the same day.

Charlotte is the distributing center of the Carolinas and is the natural radial point for the railroads of this section. There are eight railway lines radiating from Charlotte, this situation making possible a maximum of railway trackage for new industries of various kinds. Charlotte has an abundance of skilled and unskilled labor willing to give an honest day's work for a reasonable wage. Charlotte is not disturbed by continued labor difficulties, strikes and labor agitation.

The quality of Charlotte's water supply is excellent, the supply abundant, with a modern filter plant, completed at the cost of $500,000.

Electricity, ample and at low rates, has been probably the greatest factor in the industrial and commercial development of Charlotte.

Charlotte's rapid growth as a manufacturing and business center has developed financial institutions commensurate with the demands of our rapidly-growing city and section which they serve. Bank resources $58,377,278.19. Bank clearings from November, 1927, to November, 1928, $699,286,615.49.

Charlotte is live, aggressive and progressive.

Charlotte citizens co-operate in matters which promote the civic, commercial and religious and industrial welfare of the community.

Charlotte is a friendly city. She welcomes the newcomer, be he from the North, West, the East or the South.

We hope you will visit our city and experience the Charlotte Spirit of goodwill and co-operation.

For information regarding any subject please write the Chamber of Commerce, which will gladly render helpful and understanding service. C. O. Kuester, Business Manager, always ready to serve.

Tune in on WBT, our new 5,000 watt station.

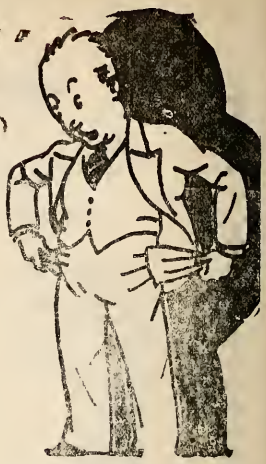
CLEANED!



READ BEFORE YOU SIGN

Written contracts create mutual obligations. One of the cornerstones of modern commerce is the Contract of Purchase. Written contracts have found their way into human and business relations because their use serves to lessen and to prevent misunderstandings between parties to an agreement.

The purchaser owes it to his pocketbook and his conscience to give SPECIAL ATTENTION to that part of the contract which tells him what he is to get, what he is to pay and when.

Don't sign a contract with your eyes shut. Don't take a salesman's word for everything. Occasionally an employer may make a mistake in the selection of salespersons. That seems to be inevitable in all types of business.

But it lies with the customer whether such a handicap to mutual understanding is to be slight or serious. A salesman may convey misunderstanding through zeal or carelessness or even by intent, but the contract, if the customer will read it, will usually clear up such divergencies, there it is set down in black and white to prevent misunderstandings.

When a signature appears on a legal contract it is a foregone conclusion that the signer is indicating his or her honorable intention of carrying the matter through to a finish. The whole commercial world of debits and credits is built upon and maintained by the strength of signed legal paper. People who sign contracts without reading them. should swallow their losses in silent chagrin.

WRITTEN CONTRACT

I Agree To Deliver	"THE DOTTED LINE" — This balance should be maintained wherever written agreements are used to record the understanding between Buyer and Seller.	I Promise To Pay

() A star () is often used in most directories for various purposes. A star (*) or hand (☞) is used in the Business Department of a directory to denote a special classification or listing; sometimes in the Street Department, in front or after a number, to denote a business place; it may be used, at the option of the publisher, to denote a married or single person; it is most generally used before or after a name to denote a colored person. Its use, however, being so general, the Publishers will not assume any responsibility for error or its wrong use.
